

Orientation

Your orientation is all about helping you get to know RMIT, your program, and everything that life at uni has in store for you!

Starting at RMIT in Semester 3?

Semester 3 Orientation Day will be held in person on campus. You'll take part in orientation activities and program induction sessions to help you get ready to start.

- Vocational education (TAFE) students: Thursday 27 August 2026
- Higher education students: Thursday 15 October 2026

Make sure you have access to your RMIT email \(/students/support-services/it-support-systems/email\), where you'll receive your Orientation and induction information. You can also keep an eye on important Semester 3 dates \(/study-with-us/international-students/intakes-in-australia-for-international-students/semester-3#dates\).

Orientation at RMIT

Orientation Week (O Week) happens the week before classes kick off—it's your chance to dive into uni life, get connected, and feel confident before your first class.

Orientation includes three key activities designed to help you:

- Understand your program
- Get familiar with your campus
- Make connections through events and activities

Make sure you take part in all three. It's the best way to start your RMIT journey.

The key parts of orientation

To help you settle into RMIT life, make sure you attend each of the three key elements of orientation.

1. Complete How2RMIT

Complete the RMIT online onboarding module designed to help you get set up and prepared for RMIT life.

Start How2RMIT module \(/students/new-students/orientation/how2rmit\)

2. Attend your program induction

Learn about your program structure and requirements, meet academic staff, peers and more. You'll receive an invitation via email. Keep an eye on your RMIT inbox for more details.

Learn about program inductions \(/students/new-students/orientation/program-inductions\)

3. Go to your campus O Week events

Explore campus, meet other students, enjoy tours and free food, and connect with support services. Keep an eye on your RMIT inbox for event details and updates.

Getting to campus

Getting to and from campus is simple once you know your options. Whether you're travelling by public transport (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/students/new-students/orientation#pt>), bike (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/students/new-students/orientation#cycling>), or car (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/students/new-students/orientation#parking>), the information below will help you plan your trip and understand any costs.

Public transport

City campus

The city campus is in the heart of the CBD and is well connected to public transport.

- Close train stations: Melbourne Central and State Library
- Trams run frequently along Swanston Street
- Multiple bus routes operate nearby

Learn more about travelling to the city campus here. (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/about/our-locations-and-facilities/locations/melbourne-city-campus#plan>).

Brunswick campus

- Tram 19 (Coburg North) stops on Sydney Road. Dawson Street is the closest stop.
- Jewell Station on the Upfield line is a short walk to campus.

Learn more about getting to the Brunswick campus here. (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/about/our-locations-and-facilities/locations/melbourne-brunswick-campus#plan>).

Bundoora campus

- Closest train stations are Thomastown and Lalor on the Mernda line, and Greensborough on the Hurstbridge line, with buses and trams connecting to campus.
- Tram 86 stops at West campus (stop 70) and East campus (stop 71).
- Buses operate throughout the area.
- A free courtesy bus runs around campus and nearby areas until late at night.

Learn more about travelling to the Bundoora campus here. (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/about/our-locations-and-facilities/locations/melbourne-bundoora-campus#plan>).

Cycling to campus

RMIT supports cycling with secure bike parking, showers, lockers and an active cycling community.

Parking on campus

City campus

- Car park located at Building 91 (110 Victoria Street, entry via Cardigan Street).
- Managed by Care Park. Open 6:30 am–10 pm daily.

- Cashless payment only, with Licence Plate Recognition for entry and exit.

Brunswick campus

- Parking permits are free.
- Access operates through your staff or student card.
- To keep access smooth, register your vehicle through the RMIT Permit Web Portal (<https://rmituniversity.ubipark.com/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2F>).

Bundoora campus

Parking at Bundoora has recently changed.

- A new system is now in place using the RMIT Permit Web Portal (<https://rmituniversity.ubipark.com/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2F>) and the RMIT Parking app available on the App Store (<https://apps.apple.com/us/app/rmit-parking/id6753662967>) and Google Play (<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.ubipark.app.RMIT>).
- Cashless payment only via the RMIT parking app.
- Paid parking applies Monday to Friday, 8 am–4 pm.
- Permits are available for regular parkers and are usually more cost-effective than paying casual rates.

Find out what's changed and how the new Bundoora parking system works here (<https://www.rmit.edu.au/students/news/2026/mar/parking-at-bundoora>).

Programs, Colleges and locations

Reading room numbers:

All rooms at RMIT are numbered in the following way: Building number. Floor number. Room number. That means, if the location is 080.04.020, it's building 80, level 4, room 20.

Programs and courses

At RMIT, a program is the qualification you're studying (e.g., Bachelor of Business), and a course is a subject within that program (e.g., Marketing Principles).

Programs are made up of multiple courses and are offered across our colleges and schools.

Learn more: Find program and course information \(/students/my-course/program-course-information\)

Colleges and schools

RMIT offers programs across 4 academic colleges and 16 academic schools.

A college is a broad academic division grouping related disciplines, while a school focuses on a specific field within that college.

Learn more: Explore colleges and schools \(/about/schools-colleges\)

Find out which college you belong to

Not sure if you're a Higher Education or Vocational Education student? Higher Education includes degrees like bachelor's and master's, while Vocational Education (TAFE) focuses on certificates and diplomas for practical skills and faster career pathways.
